* Page 6 of 2010 Cycling Carding Criteria: Objective cards are allocated to eligible athletes in the following order of priority. (Page 6 of 2009 Cycling Carding Criteria)

- a) Athletes who meet the SR1 criteria
- b) Athletes who meet the SR2 criteria
- c) Athletes meeting the D international criteria in U23 category
- d) Athletes meeting the D international criteria in Junior category
- e) Athletes meeting the SR automatic criteria
- f) Athlete meeting the D automatic criteria in U23 category
- g) Athlete meeting the D automatic criteria in Junior category
- h) Athletes meeting the SR specific criteria
- i) Athletes meeting the D specific criteria in U23 category
- j) Athletes meeting the D specific criteria in Junior category

Within each cycling sport, athletes who are eligible for the same level of card will be prioritized as follows (except for Discretionary cards):

- 1) Highest finish at a 2009 Elite World Championship event
- 2) Highest finish at a 2009 U23 World Championship event
- 3) Highest finish at a 2009 Junior World Championship event
- 4) In BMX, Mountain Bike or Track, the athlete with the highest number of UCI points using the UCI ranking¹ released immediately following the conclusion of the cycling sports 2009 World Championship. In Road, because of the differences in how the UCI calculates the individual rankings for men and women, this criterion will not be considered and the prioritization process will continue as per criterion #5
- 5) Highest finish at the 2009 Elite National Championship event
- 6) Highest finish at the 2009 U23 National Championship event
- 7) Highest finish at the 2009 Junior National Championship event

 Page 27 of 2010 Cycling Carding Criteria: Athletes that meet one of the carding criteria but because of their ranking were not selected may be nominated for a Discretionary card if based on the expert opinion of the CTO and the Sport's National Coach the athlete has the potential to achieve top 16 international performances or assist teammates to achieve World Championships and/or Major Games podium. The two experts will rank the eligible athletes based on the evaluation of the following criteria:

- The athletes potential to meet the sports performance objectives as outlined in the 2009-2012 High Performance Quad plan
- The athletes potential to contribute to qualifying quotas for World Championships or Olympic Games
- The athletes UCI standings up to the last official UCI posting before immediately after September 30th 2009. With exception of track where it will be the last official UCI posting immediately after November 30th 2009.
- The athletes competitive readiness for major events outlined in the seasons National Team Program
- The athletes contribution to overall team results in major National Program events
- The athletes placing in any UCI sanctioned events where an apparent depth and quality of field is present.
- The athletes training environment and competitive readiness as a whole
